Date: 1893

Location: 115-119 Main Street

Architect/Builder: Unknown

Owner: Deer Lodge County

Significance: This two-story brick building features ornate brick and stonework on the second story including a central Palladian arch window. It has three street level storefronts with recessed entries which have been modernized with aluminum siding. A saloon, a drug store, and a printer occupied this structure in 1899, in addition to furnished lodgings on the second floor. Today a gift shop, a lawyer's office and a drug store (since the 1920's) occupy the ground floor. Five remodeled apartments are on the second floor.
